ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dramatic "Foul Play" the Great At-

Last evening found the popular Breed theater with one of the largest audiences in its history, and many were not able to see even the second performance, and will have to try again today. Truly, this is one of the most brilliant and perfect film stories ever shown upon the screen at the Breed, and the characters seem to fairly live their parts and even though the story is divided into three reels, each 1.000 feet long, there is a continuity to the plot that coupeis one to forget that it has been other than one complete film.

To accommodate the crowds the per-remances will begin at 7 o'clock sharp at the evening, the second perform-nce going on at 8.30. In Part I, Arthur Wardiaw, the son of a rich London merchant, graduates from Oxford, heavily in debt from gambing. Under a plea of lending his tutor, Robert Penfold, money, he forges his father's name to a check for a large amount drawn to Robert's order, getting the latter to cash it and gives him the amount above the loan. The crime is faid to Robert, and as Arthur fails to help him, he is sentenced to five years' servitude in exten. Arthur is engaged to marry Helen m, the daughter of General

Part II, Robert Penfold is found ralls. Arthur Wardiaw, who has in-cived his father's firm by specula-les, arranges to have a ship belong-ing to the firm scuttled for the in-surance. Through a strange series of appenlags. Helen, Arthur's fiances, sells on this very steamer, and Robert aves her. They are cust on an unin-babited island.

Part III shows General Rolleston arwing in London, finding, to his horwer, that his daughter has been wrecklist as as. He starts to search the san for her. Meantime Robert and doles are living happily on their island and a mutual love has aprung p. Robert has despatched a number of wild ducks with messages attached giving their location. Through the closing scene, a wonderfully rong one, Arthur is confronted with a double villainy, a great wrong is ghred, and Robert Ponfold is deared a free and innocent man.

DR. HILLIS TONIGHT. Noted Congregational Divine in Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course.

A treat is in store for those who hear Dr. Newell Dwight Hills at the Central Paptist church this evening. Not only is Dr. Hillis famous because of his ability as a fecturer, but he is the anthor of a score of notable books, including "The Quest of John Chapman."
"A Man's Value to Society," "Great Books as Life Teuchers," and "Right Living as a Fine Art." He is also noted because of his connection with Plymouth Congregational church of Brookens. Outlook. The church has a mem-ship of 2,150, with 7,100 people in various club schools and associaons who look to Plymouth church as sir home church. Mr. Hills' manner is quiet and un-

L'UNION ST. JEAN.

Lively Sessions Looked for at December 12 Convention-Claim That Reports Will Show Deficit of $40,000.

A lively fight is promised for the special convention of LU nion St. Jean Saptiste d'Amerique, which is to be held in the Elysium, Weybosset street, on December 12, in compliance with the orders of Walter B. Chafee, the ommissioner appointed by the super-or court to investigate the financial fairs of the society, says the Proviffairs of the society, says the Provi-ence Journal.

Mr. Chafee, at a recent meeting of letin for business results.

the supreme officers of the big French-Canadian organization, announced that he was ready to make his report and ordered that a special convention be tailed to receive it. Before it is pre-sented to the convention, however, the report will be submitted to Chief Jus-tice Tanner, who appointed Mr. Cha-

Norwich

The members of the Tuesday club were royally entertained by Mrs. George Hathaway of Fremont street at 2 Hallowe'en luncheon, the third in a series of luncheons to be given to the club by club members.

The dining room was most attractively decorated with jack-o'-lanterns and the table with the Hallowe'en decorations of a witch stirring the fortunes of club members in a witch's kettle as a centerplece, was very prettive.

When the insurance commissioners of Massachusetts and New York made their report attacking and condemning the administration of the finances of the big French-Canadian order, they also ordered Supreme President Felix Gatinean of Southbridge to demand the resignation of Supreme Secretary J. Adelard Caron of Woonsocket. Mr. Caron complied with the request and Phileas J. Hemond of Woonsocket was appointed to act as temporary secretary.

Change of Feeling. There has been a revulsion of feeling since that time, however, and the rank and file of the society are not as disposed to criticise Mr. Caron as they were one year ago.

When the receivership proceedings were before the superior court in this city and before a compromise was reached between the attorneys for the supreme officers and J. B. Brindamour of Woonsoeket, the complainant, Mr. Caron took the stand and admitted that many false entries had been made in the books of the society.

Mr. Caron admitted that money belonging to the sick and death benefit funds had been transferred to the administration fund, which had been used by the supreme officers to promote undertakings foreign to the spirit and objects of the society.

Now, however, it is said that the compromise stopped Mr. Caron from elling the whole story, and there are vide circulation, and which is generalwide circulation, and which is generally believed to be true, has it that Mr. Caron will make sensational declarations in the near future involving other members of the supreme bureau, and that in case anything should happen to him before the convention he has committed these statements to writing and provided that they be read before the convention, if necessary.

According to the decree of Presiding Justice Tanner, the only business before the special convention will be lefore the special convention will be the election of officers. When the com-promise was reached and Commission-er Chafee was appointed, Justice Tanner entered a decision whereby the compromise was approved on condicompromise was approved on condi-tion that the present supreme officers should resign on the day before the special convention was called to order. As this convention will be held on December 12, the supreme officers, in-cluding Supreme President Fellx Gatti-neau of Southbridge, Mass.; Supreme Treasurer Philippe Boucher of Woon-socket and Supreme Medical Exam-iner Dr. J. H. Boucher, also of Woon-socket, must tender their resignations to Commissioner Chafee on or before December 11.

These officers have been urged by their friends not to resign, but if they should follow this advice they would be subject to further action by Justin Technology.

PLANS FOR NEW CHURCH Submitted by New York Architects-Episcopalians to Have Handsome

Willimantic, Ct., Oct. 30.— The Connecticut Churchman says: Preliminary sketches for the proposed York. The present church and parish house, with certain alterations, will remain in their present situation, and the new church will be built at right angles to them, so that, as occasion demands, both buildings can be thrown into one The plans provide for a dig-nified and substantial stone building, capable of seating about 225. ITCHING ECZEMA ON HANDS "Eczema began on the second joint of my thumb on my left hand. Several blisters came which soon broke and water oozed from them. Then the terrible itching began, and the eczema came in blotches on both hands. Sometimes the skin would seem to break, and gave the appearance of being cut, and blood came out of them. It was very bad when I consuited a physician. I was treated for several months, but grew worse all the time. Then it came in my face. I suffered more than I could describe from the Itching and burning. I became nearly a wreck physically. Then I consulted another physician and was treated by him for some time when he finally advised the Cuticura Remedies. I began improving after the first treatment and was cured after taking the Resolvent and using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. That was lifteen years ago, and I have never been troubled with it since. I owe my cure to the Cuticura Remedies and have just advised a lady friend who is suffering with eczema on her face and neck, to try the Cuticura Remedies." (Signed) Mrs. L. C. Warriner, Lincoln, Del., Dec. 15, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Cuticura ointment are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-page booklet on the skin and hair, will be sent, post-free, on application to "Cuticura," Dept. K. K., Beston.

THE SEASON.

Suffragists are chasing votes
With fine chance to bag 'em;
Public sinners hunt for goats,
Lest the public nag 'em;
Incle Sam is trapping trusts,
In a sweep of simoon gusts,
Gunning for some high mark "busts,
As bad ones to tag 'em.

IN THE STREETS.

Boy. my boy, it is lonely in the city;
Days that have no pity and the nights without a tear
Follow all too slowly and I can ne
more dissemble,
I am frightened and I tremble—and
I would that you were here.
O boy—God keep you!

Boy, my boy, I had sworn to weep no longer;
Time I thought was stronger than the whispers long gone by
The ardent looks, the eager words, the little love and hurried—
But they all come back unburied and not one of them will die.

10 boy—God save you:

Boy, my boy, you were glad with youth and power.
Your joy was like a flower that you were upon your sleeve; and wherever you may go there'll be a girl with eyes that glisten.
A girl to wait and listen—and a girl for you to leave.
O boy—God help her!
—Louis Untermeyer.
